

PARTNERUP

PARTNERSHIPS AND STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT FOR UPSKILLING PATHWAYS

Overview

Partner UP aims at improving the implementation of Upskilling Pathways for the benefit of adult learners and increasing their participation in lifelong learning opportunities. The project seeks to create approaches and mechanisms for stakeholder engagement, setting up cooperations and developing road maps, both on national and European level.

Objectives

Partner UP strives to promote and support cooperation among relevant stakeholders to improve the implementation of Upskilling Pathways and increase adult learners' participation in lifelong learning opportunities.

Who does Partner UP benefits?

- Policy makers on the system level
- Implementing bodies for Upskilling Pathways
- Learning providers
- Assessment and validation services
- Other stakeholders
- Authorities and organisations at the regional levels
- Low-skilled/low-qualified adults

Work Packages

Stakeholder Analysis

Research and analysis will take place to identify existing and missing stakeholders, cooperation mechanisms in place, gaps in cooperation with reference to the Upskilling Pathways initiative in the project countries and at European level.

Development Groups

Consultations will take place in partner countries with major stakeholders of adult learning to enhance cooperation, enable trust building and initiate a discussion on how to improve the implementation of Upskilling Pathways.

Study visits / peer learning

Online and face-to-face study visits with peer learning activities will take place during the project, aiming to the exchange of knowledge and best practices, get to know of different structures in partner countries and ways of engagement of the partners, stakeholders and the adult learners.

Implementation Plans

The project will develop Implementation, with road maps towards new cooperation mechanisms for the successful implementation of Upskilling Pathways, based on the previous results and actions of the project.

Partners

Co-funded by the European Union

The European Commission's support for the production of this website does not constitute an endorsement of the contents, which reflect the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

Project Number : 101087193